David Wellman is communications manager for the Northwest Indiana Regional Development Authority. A 20-year business-to-business media veteran, Wellman was previously with Diversified Marketing Strategies (Crown Point) where he served for three years as senior writer for Building Indiana magazine. Prior to that, he held various positions ranging from assistant editor to editor-in-chief for a diverse collection of b2b publications, including Frozen Food Age, Supermarket Business and Food & Beverage Marketing. His work has also appeared in publications such as Ad Age, Convenience Store News, Tobacco Outlet Business and the Times of Northwest Indiana. A native of Cincinnati, Wellman currently lives in Valparaiso with his wife, daughter and a spoiled mutt named Scrappy-Doo.

About the Northwest Indiana Regional Development Authority

Established in 2005 through a bipartisan effort including Governor Mitchell E. Daniels, Congressman Peter J. Visclosky, key state legislators, and local elected officials, the RDA is quasi-governmental development entity entrusted to make public investment decisions within a regional framework for supporting catalytic infrastructure projects and inducing private sector investment. Its mission is to be a catalyst for transforming the economy and quality of life for Northwest Indiana. For more information, visit www.in.gov/rda and www.rdatransformation.com.
